300203614

Abstract of the Disclosure

A method of operating a computer entity in a peer-to-peer network is provided in which the computer entity carries out a reputation management process in which it collects reputation data items and uses them to monitor and manage at least one other said computer entity of said network. A computer entity for implementing this method is also disclosed.

5

10